

1920-0180 – One to One (1:1) Support, Day Opportunities and Activities Framework for People with Disabilities

Islington Council invites suitable expressions of interest from providers for a framework agreement for the provision of one to one (1:1) support, day opportunities and activities for people with disabilities.

Islington Council is not placing a limit on the number of providers it is seeking to appoint to the framework agreement. Individual contracts commissioned via the framework agreement shall follow the terms of the framework agreement including how a contract is awarded. How a contract is awarded is explained within the invitation to tender documentation.

Each individual contract will be monitored against a range of outcome based indicators which the provider will be expected to achieve. The details of these indicators will be included within the contract specification and the successful organisation will need to demonstrate they have the capability and capacity to meet these requirements.

Current status / Background

In Islington, one to one (1:1) support, day opportunity and activity services for children, young people and adults with disabilities are commissioned separately via a range of spot purchase, framework and block contract arrangements. Having these various approaches does not necessarily support:

- a clear understanding of need
- a strong local marketplace that is responsive and dynamic
- smooth transfers from children's to adult services
- a diverse, high-quality, outcomes-focussed local offer

Where the local offer is unable to meet need, there is a requirement to seek services from outside of the borough.

The requirement

Our vision is for people with disabilities to lead safe, happy and meaningful lives:

- We want people to have ready access to a range of high quality, local, community-based services that build on independent living skills and facilitate access to meaningful, age-appropriate activity that draws on peoples' interests.
- We want people to be able to choose from this range of services when they need it and for this support to be flexible to changing needs, including reducing or ending when it is no longer required.
- We want services to be able to support people from childhood, into adolescence and through to adulthood; reducing the amount of change and the number of transition points that young people experience.

One to one (1:1) support, day opportunities and activities are important parts of our local offer for people with disabilities. We want to formalise our relationships with providers of these services who are committed to delivering high quality, flexible and personalised services to meet identified local needs.

Establishing a framework agreement from which to purchase these services is an opportunity to increase the range of services available for people to choose from and to drive innovation, value for money and an increased focus on outcomes.

This framework agreement is intended to develop a wider range of local services. Providers will therefore ensure, where applicable, that the service has activity bases in Islington or within a suitable distance to minimise transport time and transport costs.

The contract will be divided in to four lots:

Lot 2 One to One (1:1) Support with enhanced requirements around physical health needs
