3 Presentation Requirements – Lot One Supported Lodgings

The applicants will be required to provide a response which covers the following two scenarios:

Scenario one

One of your Hosts has reported that a Young Person placed with them is regularly staying out late and when they do come home the Young Person is bringing back expensive gifts, for example, new clothes, a smart phone, and they have a lot of excess cash.

What are the identified concerns and how would you address the issues?

Scenario two

One Young Person is no longer engaging with their Host or with any other professionals or services offering support to meet their needs as identified within their Leaving Care Pathway Plan. The Young Person has also been displaying very low mood and poor personal hygiene and has stopped attending her health and beauty college course that she had previously loved.

What are the identified concerns and how will you raise and address the issues to help the Young Person?
