II.1.4) Short description:

Lincolnshire County Council is in the process of assessing the best way in which to procure a contract to deliver Audit and Support Services to the Providers of the Lincolnshire NHS Health Check Programme, all of whom are Lincolnshire-based GP Practices. The Council anticipates the Service will include requirements to: visit and audit each GP Practice in relation to their performance and process under the NHS Health Check Programme on an annual basis; hold the license for the NHS Health Check QRisk software and ensure any underlying software required is in place; write and maintain GP system templates; train staff on the use of templates; check compliance; and advice on referrals in to other Council Commissioned services. The Council is keen to hear from all Providers who are interested and able to deliver a service of this type. The Council may choose to contact Providers who have expressed an interest directly with a follow-up Market Questionnaire.
