

Schedule 3 Special Conditions

1. Compliance with Legislation and the Client's Policies and Procedures

Definitions

Necessary Consents: all approvals, certificates, authorisations, permissions, licences, permits, regulations and consents necessary from time to time for performing the Services.

Consultant Personnel: all employees, staff, other workers, agents and consultants of the Consultant and of any sub-contractors who are engaged in performing the Services from time to time.

- 1.1 The Consultant shall ensure that all Necessary Consents are in place to perform the Services and the Client shall not (unless otherwise agreed in writing) incur any additional costs associated with obtaining, maintaining or complying with the same.
- 1.2 Wherever there is any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Contract and the requirements of a Necessary Consent, then the latter shall prevail, provided that the Consultant has made all reasonable attempts to obtain a Necessary Consent in line with the requirements of the Services and the Consultant has notified the Client in writing.
- 1.3 The Consultant shall (and shall procure that the Consultant Personnel shall) perform its obligations under this Contract (including those in relation to the Services) in accordance with:
  - (a) all applicable law regarding health and safety; and
  - (b) the Client's health and safety policies.
- 1.4 Each Party shall notify the other as soon as practicable of any health and safety incidents or material health and safety hazards of which it becomes aware and which relate to or arise in connection with the performance of this Contract. The Consultant shall instruct the Consultant Personnel to adopt any necessary associated safety measures in order to manage any such material health and safety hazards.
- 1.5 Without limiting the general obligation set out in Paragraph 6 on Service Standards, the Consultant shall (and shall procure that the Consultant Personnel shall):
  - (a) perform its obligations under this Contract (including those in relation to the Services) in accordance with:
    - (i) all applicable equality law (whether in relation to race, sex, gender reassignment, age, disability, sexual orientation, religion or belief, pregnancy, maternity or otherwise);
    - (ii) the Client's equal opportunities policies (available from the Client on request); and
    - (iii) any other requirements and instructions which the Client reasonably imposes in connection with any equality obligations imposed on the Client at any time under applicable equality law;

- (b) take all necessary steps, and inform the Client of the steps taken, to prevent unlawful discrimination designated as such by any court or tribunal, or the Equality and Human Rights Commission or (any successor organisation); and
  - (c) at all times comply with the provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998 in the performance of this Contract. The Consultant shall also undertake, or refrain from undertaking, such acts as the Client requests so as to enable the Client to comply with its obligations under the Human Rights Act 1998.
- 1.6 In the performance of this Contract the Consultant shall comply with the Client's Financial Regulations and Procurement Rules. Where the Consultant purchases goods, works or services on behalf of the Client in the course of performing the Services under this Contract, it shall comply with the European Public Procurement Directives, the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 and the Client's policies and procedures as though it were an employee of the Client. The Consultant shall ensure that the Client receives the benefit of all guarantees and warranties provided by any such suppliers of goods, works or services, either directly or through a collateral warranty agreement (as applicable).
- 1.7 The Consultant shall make best efforts to secure compliance with the provisions of this Paragraph 1 by its employees, agents and sub-contractors employed in the execution of this Contract.

2. Freedom of Information

- 2.1 Supplemental Provision 1 of Schedule 2 to the Contract concerning "Transparency" shall be deleted and replaced with this Paragraph 2 of Schedule 3.

Definitions

EIRs: the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (SI 2004/3391) together with any guidance and/or codes of practice issued by the Information Commissioner or relevant government department in relation to such regulations.

FOIA: the Freedom of Information Act 2000 together with any guidance and/or codes of practice issued by the Information Commissioner or relevant government department in relation to such legislation.

Request for Information: a request for information or an apparent request under the Code of Practice on Access to Government Information, FOIA or the EIRs.

Working Day: Monday to Friday, excluding any public holidays in England and Wales.

- 2.2 The Consultant acknowledges that the Client is subject to the requirements of the FOIA and the EIRs. The Consultant shall:
  - (a) provide all necessary assistance and cooperation as reasonably requested by the Client to enable the Client to comply with its obligations under the FOIA and EIRs;
  - (b) transfer to the Client all Requests for Information relating to this Contract that it receives as soon as practicable and in any event within 2 Working Days of receipt;

- (c) provide the Client with a copy of all Information belonging to the Client requested in the Request For Information which is in its possession or control in the form that the Client requires within 5 Working Days (or such other period as the Client may reasonably specify) of the Client's request for such Information; and
  - (d) not respond directly to a Request For Information unless authorised in writing to do so by the Client.
- 2.3 The Consultant acknowledges that the Client may be required under the FOIA and EIRs to disclose Information (including Commercially Sensitive Information) without consulting or obtaining consent from the Consultant. The Client shall take reasonable steps to notify the Consultant of a Request For Information (in accordance with the Cabinet Office's Freedom of Information Code of Practice issued under section 45 of the FOIA) to the extent that it is permissible and reasonably practical for it to do so but (notwithstanding any other provision in this Contract) the Client shall be responsible for determining in its absolute discretion whether any commercially sensitive information and/or any other information is exempt from disclosure in accordance with the FOIA and/or the EIRs.

3. Sub-contracting and Assignment

- 3.1 The Client may assign, transfer or in any other way deal in or dispose of the benefit or burden of the whole or any part of this Contract if it has a requirement to do so and shall inform the Consultant of any such dealing.
- 3.2 The Consultant shall not sub-contract, assign, transfer or in any other way deal in or dispose of the benefit or burden of the whole or any part of this Contract without the Client's prior written agreement.
- 3.3 Assigning or sub-contracting the whole or any part of this Contract shall not relieve the Consultant of any obligation or duty attributable to the Consultant under this Contract and the Consultant shall be responsible for the acts omissions defaults and negligence of its assignees and sub-contractors as though they are its own. The Consultant shall include a term in its contract with its sub-contractors requiring them to comply with the terms of this Contract. The Consultant shall not use the services of self-employed individuals without the Client's prior written agreement.
- 3.4 Where the Consultant enters into a sub-contract with a third party for the purpose of performing this Contract, it shall include a term in such sub-contract that the sub-contractor shall comply with the terms of the Consultant's Contract with the Client and a term that provides that payment shall be made by the Consultant to the sub-contractor of undisputed sums within a specified period not exceeding 30 days from the receipt of a valid invoice (as defined in the terms of the sub-contract).

4. Prevention of Corruption

- 4.1 The Client may immediately terminate this Contract and recover in full any loss sustained as a consequence of a breach of this Paragraph 4, in the event that the Consultant, its employees or anyone acting on the Consultant's behalf does any of the following things:
  - (a) offer, give or agree to give to anyone any inducement or reward in respect of this or any other contract of the Client (even if the Consultant does not know what has been done); or

- (b) commit an offence under the Bribery Act 2010 or Section 117(2) of the Local Government Act 1972; or
  - (c) commit any fraud in connection with this or any other order or contract of the Client whether alone or in conjunction with the Members, contractors, suppliers or employees of the Client.
- 4.2 The Consultant shall take all reasonable steps, in accordance with good industry practice, to prevent fraud by its staff or the Consultant (including its shareholders, members and directors) in connection with this Contract and shall notify the Client immediately if it has reason to suspect that any fraud has occurred or is occurring or is likely to occur.
- 4.3 Any clause limiting the Consultant's liability shall not apply to this Paragraph 4.

5. Right to Purchase Elsewhere

- 5.1 If the Consultant fails to perform the Services or any part thereof within the time or times specified in this Contract, the Client may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, reserve the right either:
  - (a) to terminate this Contract either wholly or in respect of that part of this Contract for which the Consultant is in default; and/or
  - (b) to purchase the relevant Services of the same or similar description to make good the default; or in the event of this Contract being wholly determined to procure the Services required from any third party without any obligation to the Consultant in respect of this Contract.

6. Service Standards

- 6.1 The Consultant shall perform the Services, or procure that they are performed, with reasonable skill and care and in accordance with all applicable law. Where a British Standard Specification or British Standard Code of Practice or other recognised standard (e.g. a Eurocode) is laid down by a regulatory body for the industry concerned and applies to the Consultant's workmanship or to any goods and materials used or supplied by the Consultant, the workmanship and the goods and materials used or supplied shall be at minimum to such standard.

7. Client's Access to Sites

- 7.1 The Consultant shall permit appropriate and properly authorised and trained representatives of the Client to enter upon any construction sites and/or sites of operation for the Services at any reasonable time and have free and unfettered access to each and every part of the areas covered or affected by this Contract.

8. Publication of Spend

- 8.1 The Consultant is advised that local authorities are required by the Government to publish details of every item of expenditure that exceeds £500 and details of each invitation to tender (for contracts to provide goods or services) with a value of £5,000 or more.

- 8.2 The Consultant is advised that the Client may therefore publish details (to the extent and in the manner required by the Government) of the tender process and any contract awarded.
- 8.3 The Consultant must comply with any reasonable request from the Client in order to assist the Client in complying with its obligations in respect of this requirement.

9. The Client as a Local Authority

- 9.1 Nothing in this Contract shall prejudice, override, modify or in any other way affect the rights, powers, duties and obligations of the Client in the exercise of its statutory powers as a local authority, local planning authority, highway authority, fire authority or statutory undertaker.

10. Data Processing

Definitions

Law: any law, subordinate legislation within the meaning of Section 21(1) of the Interpretation Act 1978, bye-law, enforceable right within the meaning of Section 2 of the European Communities Act 1972, regulation, order, regulatory policy, mandatory guidance or code of practice, judgment of a relevant court of law, or directives or requirements with which the Consultant is bound to comply.

LED: the Law Enforcement Directive (Directive (EU) 2016/680).

Protective Measures: appropriate technical and organisational measures which may include: pseudonym-ising and encrypting Personal Data, ensuring confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of systems and services, ensuring that availability of and access to Personal Data can be restored in a timely manner after an incident, and regularly assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of the such measures adopted by it.

Sub-processor: means any person appointed to Process Personal Data on behalf of the Consultant related to this Contract.

Working Day: Monday to Friday, excluding any public holidays in England and Wales.

- 10.1 The Parties acknowledge that for the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation, the Client is the Controller and the Consultant is the Processor. The only Processing that the Consultant is authorised to do is listed in Appendix 1 by the Client and may not be determined by the Consultant.
- 10.2 Both Parties will comply with all applicable requirements of the Data Protection Legislation.
- 10.3 This Paragraph 10 is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace a Party's obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 10.4 Appendix 1 sets out the scope, nature and purpose of Processing by the Consultant, the duration of the Processing and the types of Personal Data and categories of Data Subject.
- 10.5 The Consultant shall notify the Client immediately if it considers that any of the Client's instructions infringe the Data Protection Legislation and shall not knowingly or negligently do or omit to do anything which places the Client in breach of the Client's obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 10.6 The Consultant shall provide all reasonable assistance to the Client in the preparation of any Data Protection Impact Assessment prior to commencing any Processing or at any time. Such assistance may, at the discretion of the Client, include:
  - (a) a systematic description of the envisaged Processing operations and the purpose of the Processing;
  - (b) an assessment of the necessity and proportionality of the Processing operations in relation to providing the Goods;
  - (c) an assessment of the risks to the rights and freedoms of Data Subjects; and
  - (d) the measures envisaged to address the risks, including safeguards, security measures and mechanisms to ensure the protection of Personal Data.
- 10.7 The Consultant shall, in relation to any Personal Data Processed in connection with its obligations under this Contract:

- (a) Process that Personal Data only in accordance with Appendix 1, unless the Consultant is required to do otherwise by Law. If it is so required, the Consultant shall promptly notify the Client before Processing the Personal Data unless prohibited by Law;
- (b) ensure that it has in place Protective Measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risks, including, as appropriate, the measures referred to in Article 32(1) of the GDPR, which have been reviewed and approved by the Client as appropriate to protect against a Data Loss Event having taken account of the:
  - (i) nature and scope as well as context and purposes of the Personal Data to be protected;
  - (ii) harm that might result from a Data Loss Event;
  - (iii) state of technological development; and
  - (iv) cost of implementing any measures;
- (c) ensure that:
  - (i) the Consultant Personnel do not Process Personal Data except in accordance with this Contract (and in particular Appendix 1);
  - (ii) it takes all reasonable steps to ensure the reliability and integrity of any Consultant Personnel who have access to the Personal Data and ensure that they:
    - (A) are aware of and comply with the Consultant's duties under this clause;
    - (B) are subject to appropriate confidentiality undertakings with the Consultant or any Sub-processor;
    - (C) are informed of the confidential nature of the Personal Data and do not publish, disclose or divulge any of the Personal Data to any third party unless directed in writing to do so by the Client or as otherwise permitted by this Contract; and
    - (D) have undergone adequate training in the use, care, protection and handling of Personal Data; and
- (d) not transfer Personal Data outside of the EU or European Economic Area unless the prior written consent of the Client has been obtained and the following conditions are fulfilled:
  - (i) the Client or the Consultant has provided appropriate safeguards in relation to the transfer (whether in accordance with GDPR Article 46 or LED Article 37) as determined by the Client;
  - (ii) the Data Subject has enforceable rights and effective legal remedies;
  - (iii) the Consultant complies with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation by providing an adequate level of protection to any

Personal Data that is transferred (or, if it is not so bound, uses its best endeavours to assist the Client in meeting its obligations); and

- (iv) the Consultant complies with any reasonable instructions notified to it in advance by the Client with respect to the Processing of the Personal Data;
- (e) at the written direction of the Client, delete or return Personal Data (and any copies of it) to the Client on termination of this Contract unless the Consultant is required by Law to retain the Personal Data.

10.8 Subject to Paragraph 10.6, the Consultant shall notify the Client immediately if it:

- (a) receives a Data Subject Access Request (or purported Data Subject Access Request);
- (b) receives a request to rectify, block or erase any Personal Data;
- (c) receives any other request, complaint or communication relating to either Party's obligations under the Data Protection Legislation;
- (d) receives any communication from the Information Commissioner or any other regulatory authority in connection with Personal Data Processed under this Contract;
- (e) receives a request from any third party for disclosure of Personal Data where compliance with such request is required or purported to be required by Law; or
- (f) becomes aware of a Data Loss Event.

10.9 The Consultant's obligation to notify under Paragraph 10.5 shall include the provision of further information to the Client in phases, as details become available.

10.10 Taking into account the nature of the Processing, the Consultant shall provide the Client with full assistance in relation to either Party's obligations under the Data Protection Legislation and any complaint, communication or request made under Paragraph 10.8 (and insofar as possible within the timescales reasonably required by the Client) including by promptly providing:

- (a) the Client with full details and copies of the complaint, communication or request;
- (b) such assistance as is reasonably requested by the Client to enable the Client to comply with a Data Subject Access Request within the relevant timescales set out in the Data Protection Legislation;
- (c) the Client, at its request, with any Personal Data it holds in relation to a Data Subject;
- (d) assistance as requested by the Client following any Data Loss Event;
- (e) assistance as requested by the Client with respect to any request from the Information Commissioner's Office, or any consultation by the Client with the Information Commissioner's Office.

- 10.11 The Consultant shall maintain complete and accurate records and information to demonstrate its compliance with this clause under the obligation in Articles 28(3)(h) and 30(2) GDPR. This requirement does not apply where the Consultant employs fewer than 250 staff, unless:
- (a) the Client determines that the Processing is not occasional;
  - (b) the Client determines (or the Consultant is aware that) the Processing includes special categories of Personal Data as referred to in Article 9(1) of the GDPR or Personal Data relating to criminal convictions and offences referred to in Article 10 of the GDPR; and/or
  - (c) the Client determines that the Processing is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of Data Subjects.
- 10.12 The Consultant shall allow for audits of its Data Processing activity by the Client or the Client's designated auditor.
- 10.13 The Consultant shall designate a Data Protection Officer if required by the Data Protection Legislation.
- 10.14 Before allowing any Sub-processor to Process any Personal Data related to this Contract, the Consultant must:
- (a) notify the Client in writing of the intended Sub-processor and Processing;
  - (b) obtain the written consent of the Client;
  - (c) enter into a written agreement with the Sub-processor which gives effect to the terms set out in this Paragraph 10.14 such that they apply to the Sub-processor; and
  - (d) provide the Client with such information regarding the Sub-processor as the Client may reasonably require.
- 10.15 The Consultant shall remain fully liable for all acts and omissions of any Sub-processor.
- 10.16 The Client may, at any time on not less than 30 Working Days' notice, revise this clause by replacing it with any applicable Controller to Processor standard clauses or similar terms forming part of an applicable certification scheme (which shall apply when incorporated by attachment to this Contract) per Articles 28(6), 28(7) and 28(8) GDPR.
- 10.17 The Parties agree to take account of any guidance issued by the Information Commissioner's Office. The Client may on notice to the Consultant amend this Contract to ensure that it complies with any guidance issued by the Information Commissioner's Office.
- 10.18 Without prejudice to the rest of this Paragraph 10.18, the Consultant shall, in relation to any Personal Data Processed in connection with the performance by the Consultant of its obligations under this Contract Process that Personal Data only on the written instructions of the Client unless the Consultant is required by the laws of any member of the European Union or by the laws of the European Union applicable to the Consultant to Process Personal Data ("Applicable Laws"). Where the Consultant is relying on laws of a member of the European Union or European Union law as the basis for Processing Personal Data, the Consultant shall promptly notify the Client of this before performing the Processing required by the Applicable Laws unless those Applicable Laws prohibit the Consultant from so notifying the Client.

- 10.19 The Consultant shall fully indemnify the Client in respect of all losses, liabilities, claims, actions, proceedings, demands, costs, charges or expenses arising out of or in connection with any civil claim made in respect of information subject to the Data Protection Legislation, which claims would not have arisen but for some act, omission or negligence in breach of this condition on the part of the Consultant, its employees, agents or any Sub-contractor or anyone acting on its or their behalf.
- 10.20 The Parties agree that on the termination of this Contract, the Processor and any Sub-Processor shall, at the choice of the Controller, return all Personal Data and copies thereof to the Client or shall destroy all the Personal Data and certify to the Client that it has done so, unless legislation imposed on the data importer prevents it from returning or destroying all or part of the Personal Data transferred. In that case, the data importer warrants that it will guarantee the confidentiality of the Personal Data transferred and will not actively Process the Personal Data transferred anymore.
- 10.21 The Consultant shall take reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of any employee, agent or contractor of any Processor who may have access to Personal Data, ensuring in each case that access is strictly limited to those individuals who need to know or access the relevant Personal Data, as strictly necessary for the purposes of this Contract, and to comply with the Data Protection Legislation in the context of that individual's duties to the Processor, ensuring that all such individuals are subject to confidentiality undertakings or professional or statutory obligations of confidentiality.

Obligations after the termination of this Contract

- 10.22 The provisions of this Paragraph 10.22 shall apply both during the term of this Contract and indefinitely after this Contract's expiry or termination.
- 10.23 The Parties agree that on the termination of this Contract, the Data Processor and any Sub-processor shall, at the choice of the Data Controller, return all the Personal Data transferred and the copies thereof to the Data Controller or shall destroy all the Personal Data and certify to the Data Controller that it has done so, unless legislation imposed on the Data Processor prevents it from returning or destroying all or part of the Personal Data transferred. In that case, the Data Processor warrants that it will guarantee the confidentiality of the Personal Data transferred and will not actively Process the Personal Data transferred anymore.
