

Above is the site plan showing ownership. The darker orange area that encompasses much of Saxon Square indicates the area that the Council owns as freehold but leases out to the Saxon Square management company. It then leases back the car park.

The lighter orange area showing Building 30 is the town hall which the Council has transferred to the new Christchurch Town Council.